HUSKERS OH, SO CLOSE TO NO. 1

By DON BRYANT

Nebraska's Cornhuskers, a whisker away from a national championship in 1981, almost turned the trick in 1982—and still have a slim chance.

But standing in the way is a very fine Louisiana State football team in the Orange Bowl, and whatever action transpires in the Sugar Bowl when currently-ranked No. 1 Georgia and No. 2-ranked Penn State do battle in the same time slot.

No. 3-ranked Nebraska came within four seconds of an undefeated season, winning 11 and losing only to Penn State at the Nittany Lions' cage, 27-24. The Huskers took the lead with a minute left, only to see the Lions march the length of the field to apply the only blot on a superlative season.

Tom Osborne's Huskers boast impressive credentials as they march into the Orange Bowl as Big 8 champions for the second consecutive year.

For openers, the Cornhuskers led the nation in rushing offense (394.3), total offense (518.6) and scoring offense (41.1). While the defense wasn't as potent as the offense, statistically, it kept most folks out of the end zone. The Huskers ranked fifth in scoring defense (12.2), 14th in total defense (290.6) and 18th in rushing defense (125.5).

Nebraska missed scoring 37 or more points only three times during the season, as the free-wheeling offense led by All America halfback Mike Rozier, All Big 8 Quarterback Turner Gill and a magnificent offensive line spearheaded by the incomparable center Dave Rimington, piled up the yardage. Missouri (Huskers won 23-19) and Oklahoma (Huskers won 28-24) were the only teams to come anywhere close to closing the damper on Nebraska.

Individually, Rozier smashed Bobby Reynolds' 1950 rushing record with a 1,689 production, and he broke the record in nine games, the same span Reynolds used enroute to sophomore All America honors. Up front, Rimington swept every honor to become Nebraska's most decorated warrior ever.

The massive center repeated as a consensus All America, repeated as the Outland Trophy winner (first player ever to achieve that honor), repeated as a unanimous All Big 8 selection, won the Lombardi Trophy for a sweep of best lineman in the nation honors, earned a National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame post-graduate scholarship and was named a finalist for a Top Five NCAA Scholar-Athlete award.

The 1982 Cornhuskers established 11 new team records and six individual records, and tied one other individual mark. It was that kind of year for the No. 3 Huskers who fought off the tough loss to Penn State to battle back in the national race, win nine straight games in convincing fashion, clinch a repeat Big 8 title and a ninth Orange Bowl invitation.

Leading the charge, in addition of All Americans Rimington and Rozier, were All Big 8 standouts tackle Randy Theiss, guard Mike Mandelko, Quarterback Turner Gill and tight end Jamie Williams on the offensive unit and linebacker Steve Damkroger and end Tony Felici on the Black Shirts.

Nebraska and LSU will be meeting for the second time in the Orange Bowl and the fourth time since the initial game. The Huskers squeaked by LSU, 17-12, in the 1971 Orange Bowl game to claim the 1970 National Championship on Jerry Tagge's stretching 1 yard run with 6:10 left in the game.

In 1975, the Huskers opened the season with a 10-7 win over Charlie McClendon's Tigers at Lincoln. In 1976 Nebraska opened the season as the No. 1 team in the nation and escaped Baton Rouge with a 6-6 tie.

It's been that kind of exciting series and the 1983 Orange Bowl promises more of the same. Two outstanding teams with explosive offenses, both also boasting tough defensive units—the making of a real donnybrook in the tradition of Orange Bowl excellence.

PLAYER PROFILES

OFFENSE

TODD BROWN, SE . . . 6-0 . . . 173 . . . Senior . . . Holdrege, Nebraska 29

Senior former walkon had possibly his best year in a Husker uniform, but did not gain any post-season recognition . . . Playing on a run-oriented team, Brown caught at least one pass in each game and finished as the Huskers' second leading receiver behind Irving Fryar with 23 catches, but his 399 yards and four touchdowns receiving led the team . . . Caught a 58-yard touchdown pass from Turner Gill to break a 7-7 tie and start the Huskers on a 41-7 rout of 15th ranked (UPI) Auburn . . . Brown finished with 65 career catches (seventh on the NU career chart) for 1,092 yards (third) and 12 touchdowns (tied for fourth) . . . Including last year's Orange Bowl—where he caught one pass for 13 yards—Brown has caught at least one pass in 16 consecutive games, 22 or 24 over the last two seasons, 31 of 36 in his career . . . His 12 touchdowns for 72 points tie him for 36th on the NU career scoring chart . . . Brown's career statistics:

1982 Orange Bowl: Receiving 1/13

ROGER CRAIG, I-B . . . 6-2 . . . 220 . . . Senior . . . Davenport, Iowa 21

After a 1,060-yard season as a junior I-back, Craig began the season as the Huskers' starting fullback, but also split time at I-back . . . He battled a series of nagging injuries and inexperience at the new position before playing full-time behind All-American Mike Rozier at I-back the last half of the year . . . He wound up as Nebraska's No. 2 rusher behind Rozier with 586 yards and five touchdowns on 119 carries . . . 336 of those yards and three touchdowns came in the final five games, including a season-best 127 yards on 18 carries in the finale at Hawaii . . . He finished as the Huskers' No. 4 all-time rusher with 2,446 yards (just three yards behind Rick Berns, who played from 1976-78) and the No. 8 career scorer with 26 touchdowns for 158 points . . . The 26 touchdowns rank sixth on that list . . . The Hawaii game was the seventh 100 yard-plus game of his career, but the only one in 1982 . . . Craig's career statistics:

IRVING FRYAR, WB . . . 6-0 . . . 190 . . . Junior . . . Mt. Holly, New Jersey 27

One of the Huskers' most talented players, Fryar battled a series of injuries in 1982, but still emerged as Nebraska's leading receiver with 24 catches for 346 yards and two touchdowns, and the nation's No. 3 punt returner and repeat Big Eight champ with a 15.4-yard average on 18 returns . . . The fleet receiver started the year with 15 catches for 258 yards and two touchdowns in the first three games, then sprained an ankle vs. Auburn in Game 4, bruised a thigh vs. Missouri in Game 6, and injured a shoulder vs. Kansas in Game 7 . . . Over a seven-game stretch, he caught just four passes for 24 yards and no touchdowns, but came back in the last two games to catch five passes for 64 yards, rush nine times for 89 yards and a touchdown, return two kickoffs 37 yards and two punts 72 yards (including 70-yard touchdown vs. Hawaii, the third punt-return TD of his career) . . . He also set up the Huskers' go-ahead touchdown in the crucial 28-24 win over Oklahoma by throwing a 37-yard pass to Mitch Krenk after taking a deliberately-bounced lateral from Turner Gill . . . His top receiving games this year were a six-catch, 126-yard, one-touchdown day in the opener vs. Iowa, and a seven-catch, 112-yard, one-touchdown performance in Nebraska's only loss, 27-24 at Penn State . . . Ironically, 19 of his 24 receptions came in games televised by CBS, ABC or ESPN . . . Named second-team All-Big Eight by both wire services . . . Fryar's career statistics:

TURNER GILL, QB . . . 6-1 . . . 183 . . . Junior . . . Fort Worth, Texas 12

Probably the best all-around quarterback in Nebraska history, Gill emerged as the All-Big Eight choice of the Associated Press and United Press International in 1982 for a season that saw him complete 90 of 166 passes (54.2 percent) for 1,182 yards and 11 touchdowns with just three interceptions (1.8 percent), and rush for 497 yards and four TDs on 101 attempts . . . Named the Big Eight's Offensive Player-of-the-Week twice in back-to-back performances vs. Penn State and Auburn . . . In the Huskers' only loss in 1982 (and their only loss in the 17 games Gill has started), a 27-24 defeat at Penn State, Sept. 25, Gill was magnificent, as he completed 16 of 34 passes with one interception for 239 yards and two touchdowns, rushed for 52 yards and the Huskers' third TD, and guided three 80-yard touchdown drives despite not being able to call audibles due to the noise created by the 85,304 fans at Penn State's Beaver Stadium . . . The following week at Auburn, he completed 10 of 19 passes with an interception for 162 yards and a touchdown, and rushed 11 times for 50 yards to lead the Huskers' 41-7 rout of a strong Tiger team . . . Two weeks later against Kansas State, he broke Dave Humm's eight-year-old Nebraska and Big Eight single-game completion percentage record of .852 (on 23-of-27 vs. Kansas) by completing 11 of 12 (for 101 yards and a TD) for a .917 percentage . . . A very accurate passer, he's not thrown an interception in his last 72 attempts, or since the second quarter of the Colorado game, Oct. 9 . . . He did not start the season finale at Hawaii when he developed cramps in his back during the pre-game warmups, but came in in the second half to spark a 37-point explosion that brought the Huskers from a 10-0 halftime deficit to a 37-16 win over the fired-up Rainbows . . . Nebraska's top threat ever as a running quarterback, his 497 yards this year was the third-best mark ever for a QB and the best in 27 years, and his 786 career yards are just four short of the position record of 790 set by Jeff Quinn from 1978-80 . . . As a passer, he ranks eighth all-time in yardage with 1,801 yards and his 20 touchdown passes rank fourth . . . Missed the 1982 Orange Bowl after suffering nerve damage in his right leg in the 10th game of the 1981 season . . . Gill's career statistics:

MITCH KRENK, TE . . . 6-4 . . . 225 . . . Senior . . . Nebraska City, Nebraska 89

After missing most of spring practice after the middle toe of his right foot was removed because of a tumor, Krenk came on to play a vital role as a receiver and blocker in the Huskers' 11-1 season . . . Only start was at Hawaii, but split time at right end with Jamie Williams as part of the Huskers' messenger service . . . NU's No. 5 receiver in 1982 with nine catches for 124 yards . . . His spectacular, one-handed catch of a 37-yard pass from wingback Irving Fryar in the crucial 28-24 win over Oklahoma set up the second-quarter touchdown that put the Huskers ahead for good . . . Named to the All-America strength team . . . Krenk's career statistics:

JEFF KWAPICK, OT . . . 6-3 . . . 254 . . . Senior . . . Circle Pines, Minnesota 70

After lettering behind Randy Theiss at left tackle in 1980 and 1981, Kwapick moved to the right side last spring, became a starter and went on to have an outstanding year . . . Played a key role in a Husker offense that led the nation in rushing offense (394.3 yards-per-game), total offense (518.6 yards-per-game) and scoring offense (41.1 points-per-game).

MIKE MANDELKO, OG . . . 6-2 . . . 255 . . . Senior . . . Lexington, Nebraska 68

A two-year starter at left guard, Mandelko was one of three Husker interior linemen to win consensus All-Big Eight honors in 1982 . . . Deservedly so, as Nebraska averaged 394.3 yards-per-game on the ground, 518.6 yards-per-game in total offense and 41.1 points-per-game, each figure the best in the nation.

DAVE RIMINGTON, C . . . 6-3 . . . 290 . . . Senior . . . Omaha, Nebraska 50

Possibly the most-decorated offensive lineman ever in college football, Rimington in 1982 became the first player in history to repeat as winner of the Outland Award, indicative of the nation's best interior lineman, became the second Husker to win the Lombardi Trophy (given to the best lineman), was fifth in Heisman Trophy balloting, and was named lineman-of-the-year by UPI . . . He was also a consensus All-American (Associated Press, United Press International, Walter Camp, Kodak, Football Writers, Football News) for the second-straight year, was named to the All-America strength team for the second year running and became a three-time All-Big Eight pick, and a three-time academic all-conference choice (the academic All-America team was not out at press time) . . . Incredibly quick, powerful and intelligent, his crushing blocks helped the Huskers lead the nation in rushing offense (394.3 yards-per-game), total offense (518.6 yards-per-game), and scoring offense (41.4 points per game) . . . He was one of 12 players selected as a National Football Foundation Hall-of-Fame Scholar Athlete.

MIKE ROZIER, IB . . . 5-11 . . . 210 . . . Junior . . . Camden, New Jersey 30

Put quite simply, Mike Rozier in 1982 had the best season ever for a University of Nebraska running back . . . Just a junior, Rozier rushed 242 times for a school-record 1,689 yards and 15 touchdowns and ended up as the nation's No. 4 rusher with a per-game average of 140.8 yards . . . Rozier's yardage broke the 32-year-old Nebraska record of 1,342 yards set by Bobby Reynolds in a nine-game season in 1950, and he broke the record with a 251-yard (itself four yards short of the school's single-game record), four touchdown effort in the season's ninth game (vs. Oklahoma State) . . . During the year, he shot from 22nd to second on Nebraska's career rushing chart and, with 2,632 career yards, he needs just 183 next year to break I.M. Hipp's record of 2,814 set from 1977-79 . . . He also ranked 14th in the nation in scoring at 8.5 points per game and eighth in all-purpose running at 149.2 yards per game . . . For all that, he was named a first-team All American by United Press International, Kodak, the Football Writers Association of America and the Football News, All-Big Eight for the second time by the Associated Press, United Press International and the Omaha World-Herald, was named Big Eight Player-of-the-Year by AP and Big Eight Offensive Player-of-the-Year by UPI and was 10th in Heisman Trophy balloting . . . Strong as a bull and quick as a cobra, Rozier was twice named the conference's offensive player-of-the-week, first against Missouri, then against Oklahoma State . . . Despite his outstanding day against OSU, the Missouri game may have been his best-ever . . . Not expected to start because of a painful hip pointer suffered the previous week vs. Kansas State, he came off the bench when substitute Roger Craig re-injured a sprained ankle and backup Jeff Smith bruised a hand to rush for 139 yards on 17 carries and lead the Huskers to a 23-19 come-from-behind win over the Tigers on regional television . . . Topped 100 yards nine times in 12 games and 200 yards three times in 1982 . . . Ranks as the Big Eight's No. 7 career rusher and his 1982 season was the third-best-ever behind the 1,877 yards gained by Oklahoma State's Ernest Anderson this year and the 1,762 gained by Heisman Trophy-winner Billy Sims of Oklahoma in 1978 . . . In last year's Orange Bowl vs. Clemson, he rushed for 75 yards on 15 carries, returned three kickoffs 78 yards, and threw a 25-yard touchdown pass to Anthony Steels . . . Rozier's career statistics:

Talented product of eight-man football earned a starting job at right guard last spring and went on to play exceptionally this fall, drawing raves from Husker coaches . . . The only junior starter on Nebraska's sterling offensive line, Steinkuler is definite all-star material for 1983 . . . Played a major role in helping the Husker offense lead the nation in rushing (394.3 yards-per-game), total offense (518.6 yards-per-game) and scoring (41.1 points-per game).

RANDY THEISS, OT . . . 6-3 . . . 256 . . . Senior . . . St. Louis, Missouri 65

A two-time academic All-Big Eight choice and a returning academic All-American (the 1982 team had not been announced at press time), Theiss (pronounced tice) capped an outstanding career as a three-year starter by being named first-team All-Big Eight by the Associated Press and United Press International . . . Theiss was one of three Husker lineman (with guard Mike Mandelko and center Dave Rimington) to earn All-Big Eight honors after helping power Nebraska to national titles in rushing (394.3 yards-per-game), total offense (518.6 yards-per-game) and scoring offense (41.1 points per game).

DOUG WILKENING, FB . . . 6-3 . . . 218 . . . Junior . . . Littleton, Colorado 34

Wilkening began the season as the backup to Roger Craig at fullback, but took over as the starter at Auburn in the final non-conference game when Craig was injured (and was eventually moved back to I-back full time) . . . Started every game after that (except Oklahoma State when Mark Moravec started) and had a fine year . . . Finished as the Huskers' No. 5 rusher with 413 yards on 80 attempts . . . Wilkening rushed for eight touchdowns this season, the most ever for a Husker fullback (breaking the record of seven by Phil Bates in 1981), and his 48 points tied for third on the team . . . His best rushing day of the season was a seven-carry, 67-yard, one-touchdown day at Iowa State . . . Rushed for 58 yards and two touchdowns in the Big Eight showdown against Oklahoma and was named Nebraska's Chevrolet Player-of-the-Game by the CBS crew . . . Wilkening's career statistics:

1982 Orange Bowl: Receiving 1/0

JAMIE WILLIAMS, TE . . . 6-5 . . . 230 . . . Senior . . . Davenport, Iowa 80

Williams repeated as a first-team All-Big Eight choice in the Associated Press poll and was honorable-mention All-Big Eight according to United Press International after a year that saw him catch 21 passes for 222 yards and three touchdowns . . . Had two four-reception games in 1982, gaining 30 yards vs. New Mexico State and 63 (including a 12-yard touchdown) against Kansas . . . He finished 18th on the Huskers' career receiving chart with 44 catches for 516 yards and seven touchdowns . . . Among NU tight ends, Williams in his career ranks fourth in receptions and second in touchdowns . . . Williams' career statistics:

KICKERS

GRANT CAMPBELL, P . . . 6-2 . . . 195 . . . Senior . . . Southfield, Michigan 24

Plagued by inconsistency at the end of the season, Campbell's punting average dropped from 42.5 to 38.1 in the last four games . . . His 35 punts were less than the 44 he needed to qualify for Big Eight or NCAA rankings, but he would not have figured among the leaders in any event . . . Despite the late-season slump, he still ranked as Nebraska's top career punter going into the finale at Hawaii, but his 23.3-yard average on three punts vs. the Rainbows dropped his career average to 41.0 yards and below the NU-record 41.5 set by Jack Pesek from 1946-47 . . . Thanks to Nebraska's powerful offense, Campbell did not punt against Kansas State, punted only once each vs. New Mexico State and Kansas, and just twice against Auburn (for a season-high 50.5 average) . . . Campbell's career statistics:

KEVIN SEIBEL, K . . . 6-1 . . . 250 . . . Senior . . . Vermillion, South Dakota 49

The former linebacker turned kicker ended up as Nebraska's No. 4 career scorer with 199 points and missed Rich Sanger's record for points scored by kicking by just four points . . . In 1982, Seibel set Nebraska records for points scored by kicking in a season (81, old record 76 by Sanger in 1972), career PATs (151, old record 149 by Sanger from 1971-73), career PAT percentage (.968 on 151 of 156, old record .927 by Paul Rogers from 1968-70) and consecutive PATs (68, old record 56 by himself, 1980-81) . . . As a junior, he set the season record for PAT percentage at .977 on 43 of 44, and would have broken it again this year had it not been for a miss on his final try at Hawaii, which left him at 58-of-60 for .967 for the season . . . Husker's No. 2 scorer this year with 82 points, 20 behind Mike Rozier . . . Noted for his booming kickoffs, less than half (40) of his nearly 90 kickoffs were returned in 1982 . . . DEFENSE

DAVE BURKE, CB . . . 6-0 . . . 200 . . . Sophomore . . . Layton, Utah 33

Former I-back who was moved to cornerback in the spring. Burke wound up splitting starting duties with fellow sophomore Neil Harris . . . Wound up the year second among defensive backs with 40 total tackles . . . Had his best day of the season against Oklahoma when he was in on 12 tackles (six unassisted), including one behind the line which dropped OU's Marcus Dupree for a four-yard loss . . . Another late bloomer, Burke picked up 23 of his 40 tackles in the last four games . . . Also intercepted the first pass of his career against Missouri . . . Had a fine game against Kansas State, picking up seven tackles (four unassisted) . . . Burke's career statistics:

STEVE DAMKROGER, LB . . . 6-1 . . . 230 . . . Senior . . . Lincoln, Nebraska 35

Nebraska's all-time leader in career unassisted tackles, Damkroger finished his career with 157 in four seasons . . . Led the team for a second-straight season in tackles with 79 (50/29) . . . Biggest day of the year came against Missouri when he piled up 13 tackles (nine unassisted) . . . Tied with fellow starter Steve McWhirter with seven tackles for losses (including two sacks) . . . Led team with a pair of fumble recoveries . . . Best overall day came against Colorado . . . In addition to picking up seven tackles, Damkroger intercepted a pair of fourth-quarter passes which led to two NU touchdowns to break open a tight game . . . Damkroger's career statistics:

BRENT EVANS, LB . . . 6-2 . . . 225 . . . Senior . . . Chesterfield, Missouri 48

Back-up to linebackers Steve McWhirter and Steve Damkroger, Evans was in on 33 tackles this season . . . Best day came against Hawaii when he was in on five tackles (all unassisted), but biggest play came against his home state school, Missouri . . . With NU holding a slim 16-13 lead with 3:48 to go, Evans intercepted a Mike Hyde pass and returned it five yards to the MU 16 . . . Three plays later, the Huskers scored to put the game on ice . . . Also had a sack for nine-yard loss as the Huskers held Kansas to just six yards rushing . . . Evans career statistics:

TONY FELICI, DE . . . 6-2 . . . 205 . . . Senior . . . Omaha, Nebraska 46

All-Big Eight selection by UPI, Felici led the Husker linemen with 65 tackles this season . . Also tied for team lead in sacks with six for 52 yards in losses, also had four other tackles behind the line for another 10 yards against Iowa State when he was in on 10 tackles (seven unassisted), including three quarterback sacks (for 29 yards in losses) . . . Has been NU's top sack artist the past two years . . . Also selected as a member of the 1982 All-American strength team. Felici bench presses 325 pounds and has a 35-inch vertical jump . . . Named to AP's All-Big Eight second team . . . Felici's career statistics:

NEIL HARRIS, CB . . . 6-0 . . . 190 . . . Sophomore . . . Kansas City, Kansas 11

Part-time starter along with Dave Burke this past season . . . Had the best day of his career against Auburn, when he was in on seven tackles (five unassisted), including his only tackle behind the line of the year, which resulted in a two-yard loss . . . Made a key interception in the end zone against Penn State . . . His pick-off of a Todd Blackledge pass gave the Huskers the ball on their own 20 and set up NU's drive which put them in the lead with 1:18 to go . . . Harris's career statistics:

SCOTT STRASBURGER, DE . . . 6-2 . . . 207 . . . Soph. . . . Holdrege, Nebraska 90

One of the stars of the Huskers defensive effort against Oklahoma, Strasburger lined up as a third linebacker or played as a third defensive end against the Sooners . . . Made five tackles against OU, but his biggest play came in the final 30 seconds when he read a Sooner screen play correctly and intercepted it to end OU's final threat . . . Tied with starter Tony Felici for the team lead in sacks with six (for 40 yards in losses) . . . Biggest day, sack wise, came against Colorado, when he picked up two for 13 yards lost . . . Turned down an academic scholarship from Dartmouth University to walk on at Nebraska . . . Strasburger's career statistics:

ROB STUCKEY, DT . . . 6-3 . . . 250 . . . Sophomore . . . Lexington, Nebraska 75

Took over for injured starter Doug Herrmann in the Penn State game and became a steady performer for the Huskers the rest of the season . . . Best game came in the Huskers' 1982 finale, with a seven tackle performance against Hawaii . . . Finished the season with 37 total tackles, which was fourth among Husker linemen . . . One of five Huskers from the small town of Lexington (including All-Big Eight guard Mike Mandelko) . . . Stuckey, who has a 3.57 GPA, was one of three Lexington athletes selected to the All-Big Eight academic team (Tim Holbrook and Jim Murphy were the others) . . . Stuckey's career statistics:

KRIS VAN NORMAN, M . . . 6-0 . . . 195 . . . Senior . . . Minden, Nebraska 38

Academic All-Big Eight selection and a candidate for academic All-American. Van Norman started every game for the Huskers at monster . . . Led defensive backfield with a pair of sacks for losses of 27 yards . . . Had his high game of six tackles twice during the year, first against Penn State (five unassisted) and again against Oklahoma (four unassisted) . . . Had a sack for loss of 16 yards and another tackle behind the line for another yard loss as NU held Kansas to just six yards rushing in 52-0 rout . . . Van Norman's career statistics:

BILL WEBER, DE . . . 6-2 . . . 210 . . . Sophomore . . . Lincoln, Nebraska 87

Solid performer for the Huskers at defensive end, Weber was an academic All-Big Eight performer and a candidate for academic All-American honors . . . Had best day against Kansas State when he was in on six tackles (three unassisted) but perhaps his biggest play of the season came late in the first half against Colorado, when he blitzed QB Randy Essington, sacked him for a 12 yard loss and caused him to fumble, setting up an NU field goal . . . Had a pair of sacks on the season, along with four other tackles behind the line for seven yards lost . . . Also intercepted a pass against Oklahoma State . . . Weber's career statistics:

TOBY WILLIAMS, DT . . . 6-4 . . . 255 . . . Senior . . . Washington, D. C. 97

Starting right tackle for most of the season, Williams suffered a strained knee against Iowa State and has seen little playing time since . . . Missed the Oklahoma game entirely and started, but played only briefly against Hawaii . . . Should be ready to go against LSU . . . Was one of the leading tacklers until his injury, still finished third among linemen . . . Had his best game against Missouri when he was in on nine tackles (five unassisted) along with one sack for a minus-10 yards and another tackle behind the line for a three-yard loss . . . Still earned second team All-Big Eight honors from the AP and honorable-mention honors from UPI . . . Williams' career statistics:

TOM OSBORNE

Head Coach

TOM OSBORNE

Head Football Coach
Asst. Athletic Director
University of Nebraska

At the end of last season, Nebraska football coach Tom Osborne said he rated the 1981 Cornhuskers as the best team he had ever coached. That Big Red team—the ninth in his coaching tenure—had overcome a 1-2 start to finish 9-3, won the Big Eight title and just missed a shot at the national championship with a narrow, 22-15, loss to No. 1 Clemson in the Orange Bowl.

This year, the Huskers are again undefeated Big Eight champions and are back in the Orange Bowl for a second-straight year. Nebraska takes the No. 3 ranking (behind Georgia and Penn State) in the wire service polls, an 11-1 record and the nation's top offense in the game against Louisiana State. And, the 1982 Huskers are being referred to by many of their followers as the best squad in the Osborne era at Nebraska—but not yet by the head coach.

"I really don't like to make any comparisons between teams until the season is over, and we still have some games left to play," Osborne said late in the season. "But I'd have to say this team is certainly one of the best we've had here."

That would be hard to deny. The 1982 Huskers had an offense that led the nation in total offense (518.6 yards per game), rushing offense (394.3 yards per game) and scoring offense (41.1 points per game), and which set four NCAA single-game records in the 68-0 win over New Mexico State, Sept. 18. That offense combined with a young, bend-but-not-break defense which improved steadily throughout the 12-game season to finish fifth in the nation in scoring defense (12.2 points) and 14th in total defense (290.6 yards).

Only a heart-breaking, 27-24, loss in the last four seconds at Penn State, Sept. 25, separated the Huskers from an undefeated regular season.

Osborne has taken the Huskers to the last 10 in their string of 14-straight bowl appearances. Before a 22-15 loss to Clemsonin last year's Orange Bowl, his teams had beaten Texas, 19-3, in the 1974 Cotton Bowl (making him the first NU coach to take a team to a major bowl in his first year at the helm); beaten Florida, 13-10, in the 1971 Sugar Bowl; lost to Arizona State, 17-14, in the 1975 Fiesta Bowl; beaten Texas Tech, 27-24, in the 1976 Astro-Bluebonnet Bowl; beaten North Carolina, 21-17, in the 1977 Liberty Bowl; lost to Oklahoma, 31-24, in the 1979 Orange Bowl; lost to Houston, 17-14, in the 1980 Cotton Bowl; and beaten Mississippi State, 31-17, in the 1980 Sun Bowl. His overall bowl record is 5-4, including 4-2 in the "major" bowls.

Only one Osborne-coached team has finished lower than second in the Big Eight—the 1976 team which tied for fourth, but only one game out of a first-ever three-way tie for first. His teams have won or shared the conference title four times in 10 years (1975, 1978, 1981 and 1982).

He has three times been named Big Eight coach-of-the-year (1975, 1978 and 1980), and three times been named District VI coach-of-the-year by the American Football Coaches Association and Kodak (1978, 1979 and 1980). In addition, in 1978, he was named Bobby Dodds National Coach-of-the-Year by the Atlanta Quarterback Club and Delta Air Lines for his efforts toward the advancement of the higher and more notable aspects of college coaching.

In 1982, he was the first recipient of the Distinguished Nebraskalander Award from the Nebraskaland Foundation.

Osborne, who graduated from Hastings College in 1959 before logging pro time with the Washington Redskins and San Francisco 49ers, joined Devaney as an assistant in 1962. In 1965 he received his Ph.D. in educational psychology, then elected football coaching as a career. He coached the Husker receivers and helped build the NU offense into one of the most potent in the nation during the 1970 and 1971 national championship years.

While Osborne was a newcomer to the head coaching ranks in 1973, he was no stranger to Nebraska football. Osborne was a member of Bob Devaney's incomparable staff for 11 years—the last six as a key organizer of a steamroller offense.

During his tenure on the Devaney staff, Osborne headed the passing game strategy and coached the receivers. When Devaney announced his retirement from coaching in favor of full-time athletic director duties following the 1971 season, he announced Osborne would be his successor and assistant head coach for his final season of 1972. Osborne served in that capacity and as director of recruiting in 1972, then took the head coaching reins in 1973.

An outstanding high school athlete at Hastings High School in the mid 1950s, Osborne was named Nebraska prep Athlete of the Year. Passing up major college offers, Osborne became the star quarterback and basketball player for Hastings College where both his father and grandfather had matriculated. At Hastings, he played both football and basketball for Coach Tom McLaughlin, who was elected to the Nebraska Football Hall of Fame in 1982. In 1959 he was named State College Athlete of the Year—the first athlete in Nebraska history to win both the high school and college honor.

Following graduation from Hastings with a bachelor's degree, Osborne played two years with the Washington Redskins and one year with the San Francisco 49ers as a flankerback before returning to Nebraska.

In 1962 he contacted Bob Devaney and secured a position as a graduate assistant on the Husker staff. He continued in that capacity until he obtained his master's degree in 1963. Continuing his dual role in education and football coaching, Osborne gained his doctorate in 1965 and, holding the academic rank of instructor of educational psychology in Teacher's College, was a half-time coach.

Osborne, born Feb. 23, 1937, elected to pursue coaching full-time in 1967 and became the Huskers' receivers coach, a decision that NU fans have applauded since.

Married to the former Nancy Tederman, Osborne is the father of a son, Mike and daughters, Ann and Susie.

BOB DEVANEY

Athletic Director
University of Nebraska

One of the greatest coaches in the history of American football, Bob Devaney—who was enshrined in the National Football Hall of Fame last year—is now turning his vast energies toward supervision of the entire athletic program at the University of Nebraska. Devaney heads both the men's and women's athletic programs.

Nebraska has one of the finest athletic plants in the nation, thanks to Devaney's inspiration and leadership during the past 16 years. The last three years, the Huskers won the Big Eight all-sports championships.

Since Devaney became athletic director in 1967, Nebraska's Memorial Stadium has an enlarged to a capacity of 73,640—largest in the Big Eight—as well as an AstroTurf field, huge press box and scoreboard.

Since 1967, the Cornhuskers have a multi-purpose office building at the south end of Memorial Stadium, and they have an outdoor track facility—Ed Weir Stadium—and a new baseball park—Buck Beltzer Field—with an AstroTurf infield and grandstands.

Devaney also spear-headed a drive for the new multi-purpose complex that resulted in the Nebraska Legislature voting a cigarette tax to finance a 14,438-seat basketball arena, with adjacent swimming complex and indoor track plant. The result of his efforts was the Nebraska Sports Complex, which opened its doors in the fall of 1976. Besides the basketball arena, the NU Sports Complex, located on the Nebraska State Fairgrounds, houses a 220-yard synthetic track with seating for 4,500, a 25 meter x 25 yard swimming pool, and practice areas for the wrestling and gymnastics teams. In 1978, the Complex was renamed—by a vote of the Board of Regents—the Bob Devaney Sports Center.

Few coaches ever achieved the success Devaney did as headmaster of the Nebraska Cornhuskers from 1962 to 1972. During most of that span he was the "winningest coach in the nation," based on percentage of victories. He wound up with three straight Orange Bowl wins to go with his amazing record of nine bowl trips in 11 years, eight Big Eight titles, two national championships, two Outland Award winners, a Lombardi Trophy winner, a Heisman Trophy winner and numerous coach of the year and similar honors. Twice his teams won four straight Big Eight titles—1963-1966 and 1969-1972.

In his final season, Devaney's 1972 Huskers went 9-2-1 with a 40-6 win over Notre Dame in the Orange Bowl, and Bob led the nation's active coaches with a lifetime record of 136-30-7 for an .806 winning percentage. That year, too, Johnny Rodgers won the Heisman Trophy and Rich Glover swept the Outland and Lombardi Trophies.

Devaney was named Coach of the Year by the Walter Camp Foundation, the Washington Touchdown Club and the Football Writers Association after Nebraska's Cornhuskers were undefeated in 13 games in 1971, sweeping to the national championship after winning the Game of the Century against Oklahoma, 35-31.

It was the second-straight national championship for Nebraska. The 1970 team was also undefeated (11-0-1), and during the span of 1969 to 1972, the Huskers went 32 games wtihout a defeat. After Nebraska defeated LSU in the 1971 Orange Bowl game to win its first national title, former President Richard Nixon came to Lincoln to bestow a presidential plaque upon Devaney and co-captains Dan Schneiss and Jerry Murtaugh.

The Devaney Huskers reaped countless honors during those two years—AP and UPI trophies, the Grantland Rice Trophy, the MacArthur Bowl, Big Eight and Orange Bowl trophies and Coach of the Year by the Football News.

All Star games were old hat for Devaney who coached in many post-season classics such as the Hula Bowl, the Coaches All America, the All America Bowl, the Blue-Gray and the Shrine East-West. He also coached the College All Stars against the NFL Champion Dallas Cowboys in the 1972 Chicago game.

At Nebraska, Devaney's teams won 101, lost 20 and tied two in 11 years, following his 35-10-5 record at Wyoming. He never had a losing season at Nebraska and he directed three undefeated teams—in 1965, 1970 and 1971. In 11 years Devaney's teams went to nine post-season games, winning six and losing three. The Huskers played in the Gotham Bowl, Cotton Bowl, Sugar Bowl, Sun Bowl and four times in the Orange Bowl with Devaney at the helm.

Under Devaney's outstanding leadership, too, the Cornhuskers produced 22 All-America players and 72 All Big Eight selections in 10 years.

Devaney played football as an end at Alma College in Michigan, graduating with a B.S. in 1939.

After starting his coaching career at Big Beaver, Mich., High, Devaney moved to Keego Harbor and Saginaw before spending seven years at Alpena High where his teams had a 52-9-0 record. He then joined Biggie Munn, and later Duffy Daugherty, at Michigan State before becoming head coach at Wyoming in 1957.

Devaney is married to his college sweetheart, the former Phyllis Wiley. His son, Mike, and daughter Patricia, are both graduates of the University of Nebraska. He's a grandfather, too, with Mike's family including a daughter and a son.

UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT

Dr. Roskens has served as President of the University of Nebraska since April, 1977. Prior to that, he was Chancellor of the University of Nebraska at Omaha, a position he assumed on July 1, 1972.

He was born and raised on a farm near Spencer, Iowa, and attended a one-room elementary school. Dr. Roskens earned both B.A. and M.A. degrees from the University of Northern Iowa at Cedar Falls, Iowa, and a Ph.D. from the University of Iowa.

Dr. Roskens has received honorary doctorate degrees from Creighton University, Huston-Tillotson College (Austin, Texas), Hastings College and Nebraska Wesleyan University.

Before his affiliation with the University of Nebraska, he was an Assistant Dean at the University of Iowa and Executive Vice President at Kent State University.

He serves on the Boards of the American Council on Education, Foundation for the Study of Presidential and Congressional Terms, Willa Cather Pioneer Memorial and Educational Foundation and several corporations. He is Chairman of the Council on College/Corporate Relations, Washington, D.C., and serves on the Business-Higher Education Forum of the American Council on Education.

In 1980-81 he was King of Ak-Sar-Ben. Dr. Roskens, who was named "Midlander of the Year" in 1977 by the Omaha World-Herald, is listed in "Who's Who in America" and "American Men and Women of Science" as well as having been named by Change Magazine as one of the "100 Young Leaders of the Academy."

Dr. Roskens received a Citation for Meritorious Service in 1978 from B'nai B'rith, a national award from 4-H, and has been named "Outstanding Alumnus" by the University of Northern Iowa.

He and his wife, Lois, are parents of four children.

NEBRASKA'S CHANCELLOR & VICE PRESIDENT

Dr. Massengale came to Nebraska in 1976 from the University of Arizona. He joined the Arizona faculty in 1958 as assistant professor of agronomy. He was named head of the Department of Agronomy in 1966 and was named Associate Dean of the College of Agriculture and Associate Director of the Agriculture Experiment Station in 1974. He also served on the staff of the University of Wisconsin and Western Kentucky University.

A native of Monticello, Ky., Dr. Massengale holds a B.S. degree from Western Kentucky University and M.S. and Ph.D. degrees from the University of Wisconsin. He and his wife, Ruth, have two children—Jennifer and Alan.

Dr. Massengale is recognized nationally and internationally as an agronomist and consultant on crops research, teaching, and administration. He has served as a consultant in the United States, Brazil, Mexico, Saudi Arabia, Indonesia, and the Soviet Union.

He is a fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science and the American Society of Agronomy. He is past president of the Crop Science Society of America. Dr. Massengale was named one of the Outstanding Educators of America, professor of the year in the College of Agriculture at the University of Arizona, and received several awards from the Future Farmers of America.

The author or co-author of more than 70 technical articles and co-author of two books, his research emphasis is in the area of water use efficiency, photosynthate production, and cutting management for forage plants.

He is a member of Sigma Xi, Phi Kappa Phi, Alpha Zeta, Gamma Sigma Delta, Phi Sigma, and Gamma Alpha honor societies; the Nebraska Academy of Science, Arizona Academy of Science, National Association of Colleges and Teachers of Agriculture, American Society of Plant Physiology, and is a past president of the Western Society of Crop Science. He is a certified professional crop scientist and a certified professional agronomist.

INSTITUTIONAL REPRESENTATIVE

Dr. James O'Hanlon, Interim Dean of Teachers College, became Nebraska's Institutional Representative to the Big Eight Conference and the National Collegiate Athletic Association, Sept. 1, 1982, replacing Dr. Keith L. Broman, who had served in that position since 1971.

Dr. O'Hanlon has been a member of the University of Nebraska faculty since 1966 when he came to NU from Ohio University as an Assistant Professor in the Department of Secondary Education. He was elevated to Associate Professor in 1967 and to Professor in 1970.

While at Nebraska, he served as the director of the NUSTEP program for teacher education (1969-72), Coordinator of Freshman Programming for the Office of Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs (1973-74), chaired the Governor's Committee on the use of Hiram Scott College (1973), chaired the Nebraska Coordinating Commission for Post-Secondary Education (1974-75), and served as president of the University of Nebraska–Lincoln Faculty Senate in 1981. In 1972, he received the Foundation Distinguished Teaching Award.

From 1975 to 1977, he chaired the Department of Physical Education and Recreation, then became Director of the new School of Health, Physical Education and Recreation (HPER). He served in that position until being named acting Dean of Teachers College, July 1, 1982.

A native of Blair, Neb., O'Hanlon attended Grinnell College in Grinnell, Iowa, and received a bachelor's degree in history from Nebraska in 1957. He earned his master's degree in secondary education from Ohio State University in 1958, then served as a second lieutenant in the U.S. Army.

From 1959 to 1962, he was a secondary school teacher in Parma, Ohio, and Fremont, Neb., then served as a part-time instructor at the University of Nebraska and Assistant Principal at University High School while pursuing an Ed.D. in secondary education and educational psychology, which he received from the University in 1964. He served as an Assistant Professor in the Department of Secondary Education at Ohio University from 1964 to 1966, and was named to the Honor Roll of Faculty at Ohio U. in 1965.

Nebraska Band '82

Entering its second century, the Cornhusker Marching Band continues a tradition of spirited entertainment for the Big Red fans in Memorial Stadium. Under the direction of Dr. Robert Fought, the 260-member unit provides exciting pre-game and half-time shows at each home game and travels to one conference game every season.

From approximately 450 students who audition in the spring, 300 are invited to a pre-season camp which begins nine days before school opens in the fall. Averaging six hours of rehearsal a day, the band drills on fundamentals while the staff makes a final determination of the personnel to be selected for the regular season. During the course of one season, the Husker Band rehearses over 120 hours to prepare over 40 musical compositions and routines for its performances at the Nebraska games.

Game No. 1

NEBRASKA 42, IOWA 7

LINCOLN, Neb., Sept. 11—Nebraska opened its 1982 season in explosive fashion, scoring 28 first-half points and going on to crush defending Big Ten champion and 1981 Husker nemesis Iowa, 42-7. Turner Gill completed nine of 16 passes for 144 yards and two TDs, Irving Fryar caught six passes for 127 yards and a TD, and Mike Rozier started his record-breaking season with 127 rushing yards.

Game No. 2

NEBRASKA 68, NEW MEXICO STATE 0

LINCOLN, Neb., Sept. 18—The Huskers' high-powered offense set four NCAA records as the Big Red crushed New Mexico State, 68-0. Nebraska rolled up 883 yards' total offense, 677 rushing yards without a loss, 43 total first downs and 36 first downs rushing—all new national marks. Six Husker backs rushed for 49 or more yards, led by Mike Rozier's 149 (including three touchdowns) and Jeff Smith's 126.

PENN STATE 27, NEBRASKA 24

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa., Sept. 25—In one of the most exciting games of this or any college football season, Nittany Lion quarterback Todd Blackledge completed a two-yard touchdown pass to tight end Kirk Bowman with four seconds left to wipe out a spectacular Nebraska rally. NU had trailed, 21-7, early in the second half, but rallied to go ahead, 24-21, on Turner Gill's one-yard run with 1:18 left in the game, only to see Penn State march 65 yards in 10 plays.

Game No. 4

NEBRASKA 41, AUBURN 7

AUBURN, Ala., Oct. 2—Nebraska survived an early scare and went on to crush a fine Auburn team, 41-7. The Tigers had pulled into a 7-7 tie with the Huskers after one period, but NU added single TDs in the second and third periods to take a 21-7 lead, then exploded for three fourth-quarter touchdowns. Turner Gill's 58-yard touchdown pass to split end Todd Brown with 3:32 left in the first half broke the tie and sent the Huskers on their way.

NEBRASKA 40, COLORADO 14

BOULDER, Colo., Oct. 9—Nebraska rolled to a 20-0 halftime lead and seemed to have the Big Eight opener well in hand against a fired-up group of Colorado Buffaloes. But CU rallied for two quick TDs in the third quarter and all of a sudden, the lead was reduced to 20-14. Behind I-back Mike Rozier's 212-yard rushing performance, though, the Huskers put together three fourth-quarter drives to ice the game at chilly Folsom Field.

NEBRASKA 42, KANSAS STATE 13

LINCOLN, Neb., Oct. 16—Nebraska rolled to 496 yards' total offense and punter Grant Campbell never left the bench as the Huskers whipped Kansas State in their first Memorial Stadium appearance in nearly a month. Mike Rozier became only the second Nebraska back to go over 200 yards' rushing in back-to-back games as he ran for 204 yards and two TDs before leaving with a hip pointer. Turner Gill completed 11 of 12 passes for 101 yards and a TD.

Game No. 7

NEBRASKA 23, MISSOURI 19

LINCOLN, Neb., Oct. 23—Senior quarterback Bruce Mathison, subbing for the injured Turner Gill, guided the Huskers to two fourth quarter touchdowns to erase a 13-9 Missouri lead and give Nebraska a rugged, 23-19, win in a regionally-televised game. Mathison and the Huskers were helped by a gutty performance by Mike Rozier, who had not been expected to play, but came off the bench to rush for 139 yards despite a painful hip ponter.

Game No. 9

NEBRASKA 48, OKLAHOMA STATE 10

LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 6—The expected confrontation between two of the nation's top five rushers never developed as the Huskers' Mike Rozier outgained national rushing champ Ernest Anderson of OSU, 251 yards to 68. Rozier's performance gave him 1,379 yards on the season, breaking Bobby Reynolds' 32-year-old school record of 1,342. Rozier broke the record on his final carry, a 37-yard touchdown run (his fourth TD of the game) that left him just four yards short of the NU single-game record.

NEBRASKA 28, OKLAHOMA 24

LINCOLN, Neb. Nov. 26—Nebraska wrapped up its second-straight Big Eight title and Orange Bowl bid with a fiercely-contested 28-24 win over Oklahoma. The Huskers trailed, 10-7, early in the second quarter, but two touchdown runs by fullback Doug Wilkening put NU on top, 21-10, at halftime. OU's sensational freshman, Marcus Dupree, got the Sooners back in the game with an 86-yard TD early in the second half, and after the two teams traded TDs, the game was in doubt until Scott Strasburger's interception with 26 seconds left iced Nebraska's 14th-straight conference win.

NEBRASKA BOWL HISTORY AND RECORDS

1941 ROSE BOWL
STANFORD 21, NEBRASKA 13

Nebraska was only the third Big Six team to play in a post-season bowl game, but the Cornhuskers made their first bowl trip a memorable one with an invitation to the granddaddy of them all—The Rose Bowl. Under the warm California sun in Pasadena, Coach Biff Jones' Cornhuskers led Clark Shaughnessy's Stanford Indians twice in the first half, but fell victim to the innovative T-formation 21-13. The Huskers took a 7-0 lead just six plays after the kickoff when fullback Vike Francis plunged over from the three. Stanford tied the count just four plays later when Pete Gallarneau bolted over from nine yards out. In the second quarter, the Huskers took the lead again on a 33-yard Herm Rohrig-to-Allen Zikmund pass, but the Indians came back on Frankie Albert's 41-yard TD pass to Gallarneau for a 14-13 halftime lead. A 39-yard TD punt return by Pete Kmetovic iced the game for the Indians in the third quarter.

1955 ORANGE BOWL
DUKE 34, NEBRASKA 7

If Nebraska's first bowl bid was a memorable one, it's second was one to forget. The 1954 Cornhuskers finished second behind Oklahoma in the Big Seven race and went to Miami under the no-repeat rule. Making their first bowl appearance in 15 years, Bill Glassford's Cornhuskers trailed Duke's Blue Devils at the half 14-0 and pulled within 14-7 early in the third quarter after a minus-two-yard Duke punt. Halfback Don Comstock scored from the three to cap a 35-yard drive. After that, it was all Duke. Coach Bill Murray's Blue Devils rolled 65 yards to score on their next possession and added two more tallies in the fourth quarter to ice the game, 34-7.

1962 GOTHAM BOWL
NEBRASKA 36, MIAMI, FLA. 34

Playing under coach Bob Devaney, Nebraska won its first bowl game in three tries, upsetting Miami and George Mira, 36-34, in New York's now-defunct Gotham Bowl. Playing in Yankee Stadium before only 6,166 fans in sub-freezing weather, the Huskers and Hurricanes put on one of the greatest bowl shows ever, trading scores in every quarter. Willie Ross' one-yard plunge and Bill "Thunder" Thorton's subsequent two-point run gave the Huskers' the lead for good, 36-27, with 12:10 left. Mira, who passed for 321 yards led a valiant comeback attempt, but was thwarted by a last-minute interception by Husker guard Bob Brown.

NEBRASKA 13, AUBURN 7

Nebraska made it's second Orange Bowl trip a happier one than the first with a 13-7 win over Auburn in the 1964 Miami Classic. The Huskers evened their bowl record with the win and handed Bob Devaney his second bowl win in as many tries. Husker quarterback Dennis Claridge broke the game open before most of the 72,647 fans had settled in their seats. On the Huskers' second play from scrimmage, Claridge bolted 68 yards down the sideline to put NU ahead 7-0. At the time, it was the longest TD run in OB history. Moments later Dave Theisen set another OB record with a 31-yard field goal. The record lasted until the second quarter when Theisen booted a 36-yarder to give NU a 13-0 halftime lead. Auburn quarterback Jimmy Sidle almost brought the Tigers back, but Husker linebacker John Kirby batted a fourth-and-four pass away at the goal line with less than three minutes to go.

1965 COTTON BOWL
ARKANSAS 10, NEBRASKA 7

Coach Frank Broyles' Arkansas Razorbacks mounted an 80-yard fourth quarter drive against a previously impregnable Nebraska defense to down the Huskers, 10-7, in NU's first Dallas appearance. The Huskers had led most of the way in one of the greatest defensive battles in bowl history. Arkansas scored first on a 31-yard Tom McKnelly field goal in the first quarter. But soph Harry Wilson capped a 69-yard Husker march in the second quarter on a one-yard plunge to give Nebraska a 7-3 halftime lead. The Huskers held that lead until Bobby Burnett finished the Arkansas drive with a three-yard TD run with 4:50 left in the game. In the fierce defensive struggle, first downs were even at 11, and the Razorbacks held a slim, 176-168 total offense edge.

1966 ORANGE BOWL
ALABAMA 39, NEBRASKA 28

With the National Championship riding on the line, coach Bob Devaney's Huskers took on Alabama's Crimson Tide for the first time. Nebraska went into the game 10-0 and ranked third. Alabama was 8-1-1 and fourth. But earlier in the day, top-ranked Michigan State lost to UCLA in the Rose Bowl and LSU knocked off No. 2 Arkansas in the Cotton Bowl to set up a national game in the Orange Bowl. Playing in the first night bowl game ever, 'Bama won the title, 39-28. The Tide led 24-7 at the half and the game was never in serious doubt, but led by the passing of Bob Churchich, the Huskers came back to make a solid fight and set passing and receiving records.

1967 SUGAR BOWL
ALABAMA 34, NEBRASKA 7

Never ones to duck a challenge, coach Bob Devaney and his Cornhuskers accepted a bid for a rematch with Alabama and Bear Bryant in the Sugar Bowl. It turned out to be a little too much of a challenge as No. 3 'Bama handed the No. 7 Huskers a 34-7 thumping. The Tide rolled up a 17-0 first quarter advantage and led at halftime, 24-0, behind the passing of Kenny Stabler. Sophomore fullback Dick Davis prevented a complete whitewashing with a 15-yard TD catch of a Bob Churchich pass on the first play of the fourth quarter. Husker QB Churchich sparkled again against the Tide, completing 21 of 34 passes for 201 yards. With the loss, the Huskers joined Alabama in holding the dubious distinction of being the only teams to lose in all four major bowls.

1969 SUN BOWL
NEBRASKA 45, GEORGIA 6

Golden-toed Paul Rogers booted a Nebraska and Sun Bowl record four field goals—in the first quarter—and coach Bob Devaney's Cornhuskers romped to a 45-6 win over Georgia in the 35th edition of El Paso's Sun Bowl. Rogers booted FG's of 50, 32, 42 and 37 yards and sophomre I-back Jeff Kinney added a TD run of 11 yards to give Nebraska an 18-0 lead at the end of the first quarter and the Huskers were never threatened. For his record-setting effort, Rogers was named the game's outstanding offensive player. The Big Eight co-champion Cornhuskers rolled up a 355-185 total offense advantage over the outmanned Bulldogs. Dan Schneiss led Husker rushers with 63 yards and Van Brownson completed 11 of 18 passes for 109.

1971 ORANGE BOWL
NEBRASKA 17, LOUISIANA STATE 12

Playing under the lights in Miami's Orange Bowl for the first time in five years, Coach Bob Devaney's Nebraska Cornhuskers won the first of two straight national titles by virtue of a 17-12 win over LSU and some fortunate circumstances. Earlier in the day, top-ranked Texas was upset by Notre Dame, 24-11, in the Cotton Bowl, and No. 2 Ohio State was shocked by Stanford, 27-17 in the Rose. That left the doors to the title wide open for No. 3 Nebraska. The Huskers responded by building a 10-0 first-quarter lead on a 25-yard field goal by Paul Rogers and a three-yard TD run by Joe Orduna. But a pair of Mark Lumpkin FG's and a 31-yard Buddy Lee to Al Coffee TD pass on the last play of the third quarter gave the aroused Tigers a 12-10 lead. Nebraska showed its grit by driving 67 yards, Jerry Tagge stretching the ball over from the one with 6:10 left and the whole world knew Nebraska was No. 1.

1972 ORANGE BOWL
NEBRASKA 38, ALABAMA 6

It was supposed to be another "Game of the Century" rivaling Nebraska's 35-31 win over Oklahoma a few weeks earlier. The 12-0 Huskers were No. 1, the 11-0 Alabama Crimson Tide were No. 2 and the OB had a dream game—for a little less than a quarter. The Huskers struck early on a two-yard TD run by Jeff Kinney before Johnny Rodgers broke the Tide's back with a 77-yard TD punt return on the last play of the first quarter. The Huskers added two more scores in the second stanza, and by halftime there was no doubt about who was No. 1—Nebraska led, 28-0. The Huskers continued to dominate and rolled to a 38-6 win, giving the Huskers a second straight national title and coach Bob Devaney a satisfying first win in three tries over 'Bama coach Bear Bryant.

NEBRASKA 40, NOTRE DAME 6

Heisman Trophy winner Johnny Rodgers went wild, scoring four touchdowns and passing for another, as the Cornhuskers became the first team to ever win three straight Orange Bowls, romping over Notre Dame, 40-6. In his last game as a Cornhusker, Rodgers was moved to I-back from his usual wingback position, and on the game's first play he took a pitchout for a 13-yard gain. It was a sign of things to come. "Johnny R" capped his career by scoring on runs of eight, four and five yards, caught the Irish defense by surprise with a 52-yard TD pass to Frosty Anderson in the second quarter, and scored the last of his record 50 career TDs by taking a sideline pass from Dave Humm in the third quarter and scampering 50 yards to paydirt.

NEBRASKA 19, TEXAS 3

Nebraska's Cornhuskers broke open a tight scoring contest in the third quarter with a pair of game-breaker plays to chalk up a 19-3 win over the mighty Texas Longhorns in the 1974 Cotton Bowl game at Dallas. The chilled New Year's Day crowd of 67,500 saw the Big Eight runnerup and the Southwest Conference champions battle to a 3-3 tie at halftime, thanks to a brilliant Longhorn one-yard-line stand just before the gun. But the Huskers weren't to be denied and midway through the third quarter, safety Bob Thornton returned a Texas field goal try 41 yards to set up the clinching touchdown. Ritch Bahe got the final 12 yards on a reverse and Rich Sanger kicked the point to make it 10-3. Four plays later, John Bell recovered a Texas fumble at the Longhorn 19 and three plays later Tony Davis ripped in from the three to make it 16-3. Sanger kicked a 43-yard field goal with 8:09 left to complete the scoring. Texas had scored first on a 22-yard field goal by Bill Schott in the wake of a Husker fumble, but early in the second quarter defensive end Steve Manstedt picked up a Roosevelt Leaks' fumble in mid-air and raced 65 yards to the eight. But a stiff Longhorn defense forced a 24-yard field goal by Sanger.

1974 SUGAR BOWL
NEBRASKA 13, FLORIDA 10

Rallying from a 10-0 halftime deficit, Nebraska scored three times in the second half to defeat the tough Florida Gators 13-10. It was the Cornhuskers' sixth straight bowl victory, tying Nebraska with Georgia Tech for consecutive bowl wins.

From the very start, it was a tough, uphill climb for the Huskers. Florida scored once in the first quarter and kicked a field goal in the second, while holding Nebraska's usually strong offense to 138 total yards.

But in the second half, fullback Tony Davis, quarterback Terry Luck, kicker Mike Coyle and the Black Shirt defense took over for the Huskers and led Nebraska to victory. Although it wasn't until the fourth quarter when the Huskers really got rolling.

Freshman sensation, I-Back Monte Anthony, scored the Huskers first touchdown, with 13:24 left in the game, when he ran straight up the middle for two yards and the score. Coyle's kick was good, and the Huskers trailed 10-7.

Setting up the next two Husker scores was the fanatical running of Davis. Overall he ran for 126 yards on 17 carries, including the longest run of the game for 40 yards. For his performance, Davis was named the game's Most Valuable Player, an award which he had also received in the Cotton Bowl the previous year.

Nebraska's final scores came on field goals by Coyle. Coyle tied the score on a successful 37-yard boot with only 7:13 left in the game and with only 1:46 remaining, Coyle's 39-yard kick was good, and the Huskers had won their sixth postseason game.

1975 FIESTA BOWL
ARIZONA STATE 17, NEBRASKA 14

Nebraska's six bowl game winning streak was snapped by Arizona State in the 1975 Fiesta Bowl, when the Sun Devils edged the Huskers 17-14, before 51,396 fans in Tempe, Ariz.

The final blow came with 4:50 remaining in the game, when ASU kicker Dan Kush successfully booted a 29-yard field goal, giving the Sun Devils a 17-14 lead.

Fighting till the very end, Nebraska then took the ensuing kickoff and drove to the Arizona State 31 yard line with less than two minutes to play. The Huskers first two plays from there were incomplete passes, but on third down, quarterback Terry Luck hit fullback Tony Davis with a pass at the ASU 21 yard line. However, Davis was hit hard by two Arizona State players and fumbled the ball. The Sun Devils recovered it and went on to kill the clock and claim their 17-14 win.

So Nebraska ended the 1975 season at 10-2 and ranked No. 9 in the country. The Huskers lost their last two games of the year to No. 1 ranked Oklahoma 35-10 and to the No. 2 ranked Sun Devils.

1976 ASTRO-BLUEBONNET BOWL
NEBRASKA 27, TEXAS TECH 24

In the most exciting bowl game of the year, the Nebraska Cornhuskers edged past a determined Texas Tech team, 27-24, in the Astro-Bluebonnet Bowl.

Twice Nebraska rallied to overcome 10-point deficits. With Texas Tech ahead 17-7 and time running out in the second quarter, quarterback Vince Ferragamo moved the Cornhuskers 80 yards in less than two minutes to score on a 22-yard touchdown pass to Mark Dufresne. But Texas Tech running back Billy Taylor countered early in the third quarter with an eight-yard touchdown run to put Nebraska down 24-14.

Once again, the Cornhuskers started to work on the Texas Tech lead. I-back Rick Berns broke around right end and dashed untouched 18 yards into the end zone to put Nebraska within three. The Huskers then took the lead when Ferragamo connected with split end Chuck Malito—who gained 107 yards in three catches to earn most-valuable-lineman honors in the game—for a 23-yard touchdown pass. That score, which would prove to be the winning touchdown, was set up by a partially blocked punt by defensive backs Ted Harvey and Kent Smith.

The final score was in doubt until with 1:34 left in the game, defensive end Reg Gast recovered a Red Raider fumble, killing a Tech threat and allowing Nebraska to run out the clock.

1977 LIBERTY BOWL
NEBRASKA 21, NORTH CAROLINA 17

Nebraska scored twice in the fourth quarter on two Randy Garcia touchdown passes to rally from a 17-7 deficit and defeat the University of North Carolina 21-17 in the 19th annual Liberty Bowl.

Following a scoreless opening quarter, North Carolina opened the scoring in the second period, on a 12-yard pass from quarterback Matt Kupec to tight end Brooks Williams, with 13:52 left in the quarter. The extra point was good and NC led 7-0.

But Nebraska came right back with nine minutes left in the half and scored on a 15-yard run by fullback Dodie Donnell. Billy Todd's extra point tied it at 7-all.

However, the Tar Heels took a 14-7 lead into the lockerrooms when with 3:11 left in the half, Kupec passed 10 yards to fullback Bob Loomis for the touchdown and with the extra point, NC led 14-7.

At the 4:17 mark of the third period, North Carolina got its final score, a 47-yard field gold by Tom Biddle, making it NC 17-NU 7.

Garcia entered the game in the fourth quarter and threw two touchdown passes, leading the Huskers to the win. The first came with 10:51 left, a 10-yarder to Curtis Craig, and the second, with 3:16 left, a 34-yarder to split end Tim Smith.

For the game, Garcia completed all three of his passes for 56 yards and two touchdowns, and for his effort, he was named the Nebraska Offensive Player of the game.

1979 ORANGE BOWL
OKLAHOMA 31, NEBRASKA 24

In a rematch of the Big Eight kings—Nebraska had beaten Oklahoma 17-14 just one month earlier—Oklahoma held off a furious Husker fourth quarter rally and defeated Nebraska 31-24, under the lights at the 45th annual Orange Bowl game in Miami.

At the start of the final period, Oklahoma held what seemed to be a comfortable 31-10 lead—when the Hukers caught fire. With 9:12 left, senior I-Back Rick Berns scored on a one yard plunge—Billy Todd's extra point was good—capping a 78 yard drive in 15 plays, to make it OU 31-NU 17.

The Huskers got another break with 8:07 remaining, when Sooner senior quarterback Tomas Lott fumbled the ball, and Husker sophomore tackle David Clark recovered it on the OU 42 yard line. Nebraska then drove 35 yards in eight plays and was faced with a fourth and one situation at the Sooner seven yard line. Husker sophomore I-Back Craig Johnson tried the middle for the first down, but was stopped by Oklahoma junior linebacker George Cumby. Time was beginning to run out for Nebraska.

Nebraska made its one more scoring opportunity count. Starting at the Nebraska 41-yard line, the Huskers drove 58 yards in 10 plays as senior quarterback Tom Sorley passed two-yards to junior tight end Junior Miller. Todd's extra point was good—with no time remaining—making the final score OU 31-NU 24.

HOUSTON 17, NEBRASKA 14

It came down to a game of seconds as Houston, the Southwestern Conference champion, defeated Nebraska, runnerup in the Big Eight, 17-14 in the 44th annual Cotton Bowl game in Dallas.

Before a CBS-TV national audience and a crowd of 72,032 in the famed bowl, the Huskers struck first, with 5:13 left in the opening quarter, when junior I-Back Jarvis Redwine scored on a nine-yard run and with Dean Sukup's extra point, NU led 7-0.

But Houston came back strong in the second period and marched 71 yards in six plays and one penalty, to score with 12:17 left in the first half, on an eight yard run by sub-quarterback Terry Elston. With the Cougars' extra point, the game was tied 7-7 at the half.

Neither team scored in the third period, but with 8:25 left, UH kicker Ken Hatfield boot a 41-yard field goal, to give the Cougars a 10-7 lead. However, Nebraska then rallied, and with 3:56 left in the contest, scored on a six-yard pass from quarterback Jeff Quinn to junior tight end Jeff Finn. And with Sukup's PAT, Nebraska held on to a 14-10 lead with only 3:39 left to play.

Houston then took the kickoff and drove 60 yards in 12 plays, down to the NU six yard line. With only seconds remaining, and with a fourth and goal situation, Elston threaded the ball between three Nebraska defenders in the end zone and Eric Herring caught it for the winning score with 12 seconds left to play.

NEBRASKA 31, MISSISSIPPI STATE 17

A great passing performance by senior Jeff Quinn and a stout defensive effort enabled Nebraska to enjoy a successful return to the Sun Bowl by downing Mississippi State 31-17. The 1980 Classic marked a reunion of sorts, since it was in the 1969 Sun Bowl that the Huskers started their present streak of 13 straight bowl appearances.

The Huskers drew first blood, when Todd Brown took a pitch on an end around play and ran 23 yards for the score with only 2:30 gone in the game. Brown's score was set up on a fumbled punt by MSU's Mardye McDole on the previous play.

The Huskers added 10 points in the second quarter—on a 22-yard Kevin Seibel field goal and an eight yard Jeff Quinn to Jeff Finn pass—to take a 17-0 lead into the dressing room at halftime.

MSU finally scored in the third quarter on a 47 yard field goal and appeared to be gaining momentum when Husker defensive end Jimmy Williams recovered a fumble at the Bulldog 25 to set up a 2 yard run by Andra Franklin.

After State scored to open the final quarter, Williams again thwarted any further MSU chances with a sack and another fumble recovery. The Huskers then iced the game with a 52 yard Jeff Quinn to Tim McCrady pass late in the game. For their efforts, Williams and Quinn were named the outstanding players of the 1980 Sun Bowl.

CLEMSON 22, NEBRASKA 15

Coach Tom Osborne's Cornhuskers went into their 13th consecutive bowl game in Miami against No. 1-ranked Clemson, hoping New Year's magic would work the same wonders for them as it had for their Big Red counterparts 11 years earlier—and for a while, it looked like it would. First, Texas toppled No. 3 Alabama, 14-12, in the Cotton Bowl, and while fourth-ranked Nebraska battled Clemson, Pitt was knocking off No. 2 Georgia in the Sugar Bowl, leaving it up to the Huskers and Tigers to settle the national title.

The dream of a third championship in 12 years was not to be for the Huskers, though, as their own errors, plus standout performances by Clemson quarterback Homer Jordan and the Tiger defense gave the South Carolina school its first national title and a 12-0 season with a 22-15 victory.

The Tigers scored first on a 41-yard Donald Igwebuike field goal to take a 3-0 lead, but Nebraska came back with a bit of razzle-dazzle and took a 7-3 lead midway in the first quarter on a 25-yard TD pass from I-back Mike Rozier to wingback Anthony Steels.

For the next two-and-a-half quarters, though, it was almost all Clemson, as the opportunistic Tigers took advantage of Husker errors to score 19 unanswered points and take a 22-7 lead after three periods. Early in the fourth quarter, the Huskers came back on a 26-yard TD run and a two-point conversion by Roger Craig, cutting the margin to 22-15, but an eighth untimely penalty stopped another promising drive moments later and the elusive Jordan ate up all but six seconds of the last 5:24.
